

martin family quarterly

Vol. X, #2

Aug., 1984

The Quarterly is published for persons doing genealogical research on Martin families in the United States from the first settlements to the present. Emphasis is placed on research before 1850. Our purpose is to document Martin families using public documents and family records.

Queries are published free for our current subscribers and each subscriber is entitled to one query in each issue. Queries are not published for non-subscribers. There is no word limit, but we reserve the right to edit. Try to include as many dates and places as possible as to marriages, children, places of residence, etc. Please put your query on a separate sheet of paper and write "query" at the top of the page.

We want no errors in this quarterly. If you know of any error please notify us as soon as possible.

The Quarterly is published in May, August, November and February with a subscription rate of $15.00 per volume. All subscriptions begin with the May issue.

The first issue of the Quarterly was Vol. I, #1 - May 1975. It has been published quarterly since that date. We are unable to assist non-subscribers with their Martin lineage.

MRS. FANNIE LOU MARTIN (WIDOW OF THOMAS TAYLOR MARTIN) - #40106

T. T. Martin was born ca. 1844 in Bibb Co., Ga. and served in Co. "F", 27th Ga. and Co. "C", 59th Ga. He died 5 July 1924, Jacksonville, Cherokee Co., Tx. This is an unusual file, because it contains 59 pages. Most of the applications never contain more than 10 pages. Fannie Lou, age 64, born Ala., first applied 13 Aug. 1924 while living at 101 S. White St., Tyler, Tx. She had married T. T. Martin, 31 Oct. 1879, Russell Co., Ala. G. C. Hopkins and R. Honeycutt made affidavit that she was the widow of T. T. Martin. The remainder of this file contains numerous letters written between 1935 and 1944 and anyone interested in this family should write for the entire pension.

On 16 Aug. 1935 D. R. Pendleton of Tyler, Tx., who had known T. T. Martin, was attorney for Mrs. Martin. At this time Fannie had lived in Henderson, Houston, Tyler and Gladewater, Tx. Her daughter, Josephine, was travelling with her. On 13 Sept. 1935 the Rev. S. W. Riley of Tyler, Tx. wrote to the Comptroller asking where Mrs. Fannie Martin was. Riley said Fannie's daughter was not dependable and her son, H. T. Martin, was worried about her. In Sept. of 1935 Fannie was living at the Houston Hotel, 215 1/2 San Jacinto St., Houston, Tx. Her daughter, Josephine Keenan, was living with her. At this time the Comptroller of Texas wanted to put Fannie in the Confederate Woman's Home in Austin. Mrs. Martin refused to go to the home in Austin, so the Comptroller wanted a guardian appointed for Mrs. Fannie Lou Martin. Guardianship wouldn't be accepted by anyone, but Mrs. Martin wanted either Rev. Robt. Hill of the Presbyterian Church in Tyler or D. R. Pendleton to handle her funds. D. R. Pendleton was given power of attorney for a short time, but their agreement didn't work out. In May of 1938 Fannie Lou lived in Dallas, Tx. and in May of 1940 she had moved to Shreveport, La. Pension payments couldn't be paid to anyone living out of the state. In 1944 Fannie Lou's daughter, then Josephine Warren, wanted to pick up the payments at Waskom, Tx. Mrs. Fannie Lou Martin died 17 Sept. 1944 at the home of her son, H. T. Martin, Shreveport, La. The funeral of Fannie Lou Wright Martin was done by Rose-Neath, Shreveport, La.

WATERFIELD BIBLE

Elizabeth W. Warterfield was born in Bedford Co., Va., Nov. 5, 1783; was married to Barnet Martin in 1805, with whom she lived about thirteen months; embraced religion in 1807, and joined the Methodist Church, in which she lived a devoted member until the day of her death, which occurred Sept. 7, 1870. Sister Martin being left a widow in early life, in which state she lived more than half a century, was one of the most devoted Christians with whom it has been my lot to be associated for many long years. She was an old-fashioned Methodist, who loved the class-meeting as long as she lived. Inclement weather never prevented her from going to church when she was able to go. The year before she died, she prayed daily to be spared to see the new church at Goshen completed, and one more protracted meeting held there. God heard and answered the prayer of this devoted Christian, and then removed her to the Christian's rest in heaven. May the Lord bless the two aged sisters that have been left behind to mourn their loss, and may they cheer up, remembering that the same God that delivered her from the fear of death, will finally bring them to the same heaven, where they will meet her, to live where sickness, pain, and death, are strangers.

Peter applied for pension 2 July 1827 in Christian Co., Ky.; at this time he was a resident of Caldwell Co., Ky. He applied again 1 Oct. 1827, Christian Co., Ky. He said he had moved from Virginia to Kentucky in 1818 and the money he had left for a new start in Kentucky was used for doctors to treat his sick wife (Mildred Martin who died 14 April 1819).

James G. Warterfield, son of Peter Warterfield and Mildred Martin, applied for a War of 1812 pension. James G.'s wife said James was born in Culpeper Co., Va. He volunteered at Lynchburg, Va. CORRECTION

Vol. IX, #3, page 86, 14 lines from bottom of page - Meligs Co., Ohio marriage records. This correction from Robert A. Martin, 470 W. Columbia St., Alliance, Ohio 44601.

Martin, Elizabeth married Ford, Leroy - 22 Dec. 1859. This should be Lory Ford. Elizabeth and Lory are part of Mr. Martin's family. When Homer Pierce copied these marriages he misread the name. Elizabeth Martin was a Hyder and she had been previously married to a Martin. This will keep someone from trying to place Elizabeth into a Martin family.

Mrs. Francis has done extensive research on the descendants of Thomas Martin and Anna Anderson. A great amount of her work couldn't be included in this article, so if you have questions on any of these descendants please write to Mrs. Richard G. Francis, 432 Vonda Dr., Sulphur Springs, Tx. 75482.

Much more research needs to be done on the Martins in Middle Tennessee - especially in White, Warren and Van Buren Counties. There were many different Martin families in these counties and all the court records have not been examined yet.

It appears that Mrs. Francis has corresponded with many descendents of Caffrey and Susan Martin to have made the conclusions in this article. There are many more Martins in Middle Tenn. who are related to this family and more research will prove this.

Mrs. Francis submitted a detailed reference list with this lineage. The majority of the lineage is based on family knowledge of descendants and census work. The files of this Quarterly contain enough documents to prove that the facts included are correct, but research will continue in the court records.

FROM THE EDITOR

I would like to apologize, because you have received this quarterly so late. The August issue last year was late also. Last year I sent out postcards letting you know the issue would be late, but this time I made the decision to spend that money on more documents instead of postcards. This is the 38th issue of the Martin Family Quarterly and I am getting weary.

Many of you know that the editor of this quarterly is not a Mr. Farmer. My first name is Michal, my maiden name is Martin and I married a Farmer. I am Mrs. Farmer, but I don't use Mrs. before my name because I like to use my maiden name and it just makes my name too long to add Mrs.

Some of you are very upset because I have been unable to answer your letters promptly. The Martin Family Quarterly has more than 500 subscribers and the quarterly would never go out if all letters were answered. Since 1975 I would estimate that more than 4,000 people have written to inquire about the quarterly. Each person receives a list of contents of back issues and a price list. We cannot and will not assist anyone who does not subscribe, because this would be unfair to our paid subscribers.

The quarterly is a result of serious research effort to prove Martin lineages in the United States. I don't have a clearinghouse; I don't just collect and distribute information. Every scrap of information in this magazine will be documented or it will be clearly stated that conclusions were made from a preponderance of some evidence and not an exact document that occurred at the time the event happened.

Some of you have been subscribing to this magazine since the first issue and I really do appreciate your patience and I hope you have found something useful. This quarterly can't help you if no one knows which Martins you are researching. If you haven't sent a query in several years it would be a good idea to send a new one. Many libraries receive the quarterly as well as subscribers.

If you plan to publish your Martin research then it is understandable that you wouldn't want to submit your lineage for publication here, but if you aren't going to publish your research wouldn't you like to see it preserved.

Don't hoard your genealogy - share it with others. It really is as much fun to give as to receive. If you have become a cynical genealogist then you probably won't learn much more about your Martins. Many of you would be surprised by the family records some of our subscribers have.

If you have a photograph of one of your Martin ancestors would you let it be published in the quarterly? Do you have a bible record you haven't shared or a tombstone photograph? Do you have an interesting old letter that would help someone?

I have three different Martin lineages and none of them is - so far - related to the other. Briefly they are: (1) Adam Martin, d. 1835, St. Louis Co., Mo., m. Mary McMillin, and Adams's brother, Lewis Martin were from Virginia or Pennsylvania. They lived in Rutherford Co., N. C. in 1790 and migrated to St. Louis Co., Mo. Adam migrated about 1797 and Lewis migrated in the very early 1800's. (2) Orson Martin lived in Goochland Co., Va. in the 1740's. He moved to North Carolina and then to Georgia where he made a deed of gift to his son, Gannaway Martin, in Wilkes Co., Ga. in 1785. Orson had two other sons named William and Valentine Martin. (3) Kinchen Martin was born in 1806 in North Carolina and moved to Twiggs Co., Ga. in his youth. Kinchen m. Esther (maiden name not proven) and died testate in Crawford Co., Ga. in 1861.

My files are organized somewhat. Most documents are filed by locality in county folders. Some documents are grouped together by family - examples - Descendants of Joseph Martin and Susannah Chiles, Descendants of Abram Martin, Descendants of Valentine Martin of Cumberland Co., Va., Descendants of Adam Martin. If you want your query answered you should reveal as much information about your Martins as possible so there is a starting place to begin searching in the files. If the answer is in my files it will be sent to you.

Sometimes days pass by and the same query is still being searched. This is the way I stay behind schedule in all of my work. I start searching for the answer to one query which leads to another query and the answer or suggestion gets temporarily lost and never reaches you.

Many file drawers of material were acquired before a computer was purchased. In process is a master index to Martin marriages, probates and deeds which will help save time in locating information. It is uncertain when this project will be up-to-date though.

I want to thank all of you who have sent your group sheets, court records and bits and pieces of data. Every scrap of information is useful. If you submitted something for the quarterly it will eventually be published. I have a large backlog of articles.

It is uncertain right now if the out of print volumes will be reprinted. I have considered extracting like items from those volumes and publishing them together in booklets instead of re-printing them as they were first published. What do you think about this?

The 1850 census of Arkansas will be concluded in the next issue.

All suggestions for improvement of this quarterly will be welcomed.

Michael Martin Farmer

Mrs. Glen Maples, 5211 Mountain Dr., Amarillo, Tx. 79108 asks who was Hannah Conrad? Hannah Martin married Daniel Conrad, 3 April 1801, Lincoln Co., N. C. Mrs. Maples said Hannah is buried across the road from Grace Lutheran Church in Catawba Co., N. C. or just over into Lincoln Co.

Hannah Conrad was a sister of Jacob Martin who was pensioned for Revolutionary service (S7172). Jacob Martin applied for pension in 1843, age 84, Buncombe Co., N. C. He was born ca. 1759. Martin Coulter was born ca. 1758 of Catawba Co., N. C. in 1843. Coulter saw Jacob Martin, George Martin and John Martin on a scouting party under John Wilson during the Revolution. Jacob Martin was a substitute for Jacob Wetzel. Jacob was 6 feet high and was dark complected.

Mrs. Maples is researching Martins in Lincoln Co., N. C. and Perry Co., Mo. Also working on these Martins is Patricia D. Smith, 1168 Brown Ave., Lafayette, Calif. 94549. John Martin migrated from Lincoln Co., N. C. to Perry Co., Mo. in the 1820's. He died ca. 1845 in Perry Co., Mo. Heirs of this John Martin were: Adam Moore Martin, James Martin, David Martin, George Martin and Oily Penny. Adam Moore Martin, b. 22 Aug. 1802, moved from Perry Co., Mo. to Independence Co., Ark. by 1849; he is found in the 1850 census in Independence Co. Adam married 6 April 1825, Lincoln Co., N. C. to Elizabeth Henderson. Oily Martin had married 9 Feb. 1822, Lincoln Co., N. C. to Richmond Penny.

Desire information on two Martin lineages: (1) My 99g grandfather, Joseph Martin, was born ca. 1832, Illinois. He married Elizabeth Quirey in 1854, Louisville, Ky. Their son, Charles Quirey Martin was born in 1855, Louisville. Both Joseph and Charles were grocers in Louisville and are both buried in Cave Hill Cemetery, Louisville. Where in Illinois was Joseph born? Were Joseph's parents Joseph Martin and Jane Adams? (2) My 99g grandfather, William Martin, was born 1789, Claverack, Columbia Co., N. Y. He married Roxa Pier and had a daughter, Sally Ann Martin, in 1826. Sally Ann was born either in New York or Warren Co., Pa. Can you tell me anything more about this William Martin? Any information on these two lineages will be greatly appreciated.

See Thomas Martin and His Descendants, beginning on page 89 of this issue of the quarterly. I am seeking additional documentary proof, such as wills, deeds, and marriage records, that will further document my lineage and locate additional children of Thomas Martin and his wife, Rachel Caffery, and the parents of Thomas Martin. I am also seeking the marriage record of Charles Caffery Martin and Susannah (Susan) Richardson and their unidentified children as well as further information on their known children. Were Green, John and Thomas Cook Martin children of Caffery and Susan Martin? I need the marriage record of Thomas Martin and Anna and proof of the identity of their children, Sarah, James, and Elizabeth Martin. Also descendants of Thomas and Anna Martin's son, John Martin and his wife, Mary Ann Mooneyham, and William Carroll Martin and his wife, Mary. I will be glad to exchange information.

The following is copied from Martha Walters Acker, Deeds of Franklin Co., Georgia 1784-1826, 1976, p. 136:

Deed Book NN, pages 72-73. Deed dated 4 May 1798, recorded 13 Jan. 1801, from Joseph Martin of Henry Co., Va. to Benjamin Cheary of Franklin Co., Ga. In consideration of $140, conveys 147 1/2 acres in Franklin Co. on both sides of Walton Creek, adj. Samuel Ward and land belonging to the heirs of Jesse Walton, decd., being part of Samuel Ward's Mill Survey, and deeded by said Ward to said Martin. (signed "Jos. Martin" Wit: Peter Gearhart, Jr., B. Martin, Jesse Martin. Sworn to by Brice Martin before Jerre Sparkes, 17 Sept. 1798 that he witnessed the above deed from Joseph Martin to Samuel (sic) Cheary.

Who is Jessie Martin? Logically, he should be Gen. Joseph Martin's son by Susannah Graves. But, the dates raise a question. The deed is dated only 12 years after Jesse's birth as given on p. 70, Martin Family Quarterly, Vol. IV, No. 3. Is it likely that an underage boy could legally witness a deed? Is it likely that there was another Jesse Martin who did witness the deed?

Matilda Ann Martin married 1 July 1839 to William C. Cates in Benton Co., Ark. I believe that some, if not all, of the Martins listed in 1850 Benton Co., Ark. census are related to Matilda. Who were the parents of Matilda Ann Martin. By 1854 the Cates family had moved to Tarrant Co., Texas.
